

ARCTIC ADVENTURES ICELAND

Take your loved one away for a romantic break with a bit of an edge; stay at Hotel Holt one of Reykjavik's finest hotels hitherto reserved for locals; pamper her with a manicure and facial at Badhusid, a women's only spa founded by a former Miss Iceland; wine and dine her at Sjavarkjallarinn one of Reykjavik's chicest and luxiest restaurants serving Icelandic fare with an Asian fusion twist. Add to the occasion as you will with Icelandair flight upgrades and Super Jeep Safaris.

HOTEL HOLT

Something of an Icelandic institution the Holt is both where anybody who is anybody has their celebratory occasions not least because of its restaurant which, with its specialities such as toasted cod, arctic char, langoustine bisque and toasted pigeon terrine. From the moment you walk through the front door the leather backed chairs, original art on the walls and effortless superiority speak of an understated elegance. All double rooms are individually furnished with signature walnut inlaid headboards on King size beds and have minibar, satellite television, hairdryer, telephone, safe and wireless internet.
